

Title page must contain the title of the presentation
(8-10 words) (Arial, 44-54pt)

Name of author <sup>1</sup>, name of author
<sup>2</sup>, etc. (Arial, 24pt)

<sup>1</sup>affiliation(s). (Arial, 16pt)

Abstract (Arial, 28pt) – 1 page only!

Please use the following rules: (Arial, 20 - 24pt)

Abstract should a brief summary of the poster, a maximum of 300 words. It is advised to have the following key points included as the main content (but are not limited to): Problem statement, methods, results, and conclusions that are aligned with the conference theme. Please make sure that each key point/section is clearly indicated in the poster.

Provide up to 5 keywords in the abstract separated with (;). Indicate at least one of the SDGs in the keywords. (Arial, 16pt)

Keywords: First keyword; Second keyword; Third keyword; .....

1. Problem statement (Arial, 40pt)

Please use the following rules: (Arial, 20 - 24pt)

- Do not exceed the margins given by this box for your text and images. You can set the line to be transparent, but it is shown in this template for clarity.
- Use static images instead of videos/animation.
- If you have to put a video in this presentation, upload the video on your YouTube account (private mode) and embed the video URL to your poster. Make sure that the embedded URL is clickable on the submitted file.
- You can make your own subheadings (use the format 1.1., 1.1.1., etc, in accordance with the section). However, do not CHANGE the heading section!
- Submit your file in .ppt or .pptx format only
- In ENGLISH ONLY
- Do not exceed 7 PAGES for your poster!

2. Methods

Please use the following rules: (Arial, 20 - 24pt)

- Do not exceed the margins given by this box for your text and images. You can set the line to be transparent, but it is shown in this template for clarity.
- Use static images instead of videos/animation.
- If you have to put a video in this presentation, upload the video on your YouTube account (private mode) and embed the video URL to your poster. Make sure that the embedded URL is clickable on the submitted file.
- You can make your own subheadings (use the format 1.1., 1.1.1., etc, in accordance with the section). However, do not CHANGE the heading section!
- Submit your file in .ppt or .pptx format only
- In ENGLISH ONLY
- Do not exceed 7 PAGES for your poster!

3. Results

Please use the following rules: (Arial, 20 - 24pt)

- Do not exceed the margins given by this box for your text and images. You can set the line to be transparent, but it is shown in this template for clarity.
- Use static images instead of videos/animation.
- If you have to put a video in this presentation, upload the video on your YouTube account (private mode) and embed the video URL to your poster. Make sure that the embedded URL is clickable on the submitted file.
- You can make your own subheadings (use the format 1.1., 1.1.1., etc, in accordance with the section). However, do not CHANGE the heading section!
- Submit your file in .ppt or .pptx format only.
- In ENGLISH ONLY
- Do not exceed 7 PAGES for your poster!

4. Discussion and conclusion

Please use the following rules: (Arial, 20 - 24pt)

- Do not exceed the margins given by this box for your text and images. You can set the line to be transparent, but it is shown in this template for clarity.
- Use static images instead of videos/animation.
- If you have to put a video in this presentation, upload the video on your YouTube account (private mode) and embed the video URL to your poster. Make sure that the embedded URL is clickable on the submitted file.
- You can make your own subheadings (use the format 1.1., 1.1.1., etc, in accordance with the section). However, do not CHANGE the heading section!
- Submit your file in .ppt or .pptx format only.
- In ENGLISH ONLY
- Do not exceed 7 PAGES for your poster!

5. References